To Whom It May Concern:

Warm CHMSU Greetings!

The Technopacer – Fortune Towne, the official student publication of Carlos Hilado Memorial State University – Fortune Towne Campus, respectfully writes to inform your good office of its forthcoming capacity-building editorial workshop, scheduled on October 2 (1:00 PM – 5:00 PM) to October 3 (8:00 AM – 5:00 PM), 2026, at Carlos Hilado Memorial State University – Fortune Towne Campus.

This undertaking is organized in pursuit of the publication's continuing commitment to strengthening the technical competence, formation, and journalistic standards of its staff, in line with its institutional mandate to provide quality media coverage for the university community. The workshop shall cover the core areas of writing, photojournalism, and cartooning, with sessions designed to sharpen the members' skills across these disciplines.

In this connection, the organization humbly invites you to serve as one of the resource speakers for the said activity. In recognition of your expertise and experience in the field, it is our conviction that your presence and insights would substantially contribute to the professional development of our members and the fulfillment of the workshop's objectives.

Should you graciously accept this invitation, we would welcome the opportunity to coordinate further particulars, including your designated topic, allotted time within the program, and other logistical arrangements, at a schedule most convenient to you. We wish to assure your good office that the corresponding honorarium and other forms of support for this engagement have already been duly allocated by the organization.

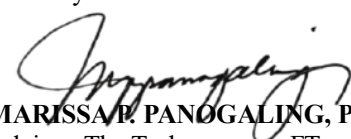

We remain hopeful of receiving your favorable response to this invitation. Should you require any further information or clarification, kindly reach us through our Facebook page, The Technopacer - Fortune Towne, or our email at thetechnopacerfortunetowne@gmail.com.

Thank you very much for your kind consideration, and God bless.

Respectfully Yours,

SARAH GWYNETH SANCHO
